

This is your opportunity to get financially savvy

Skyline College instructor John Miller, RFP, will teach a free class for baby boomers (ages 44-64) on financial topics

Serramonte Main Library in the Community Room
40 Wembley Drive, Daly City

The class will have nine sessions on Wednesday evenings October 8 through December 12 from 7-9 p.m.

Space is limited to 20 participants, who will receive both the Wi$eUp workbook and other books as part of the program

Interested participants should call 650-991-8025 to sign up

Get savvy about your finances, from basic money management to insurance, investing and retirement planning

Made possible with a grant from the Institute for Museum and Library Services

Presented in collaboration with Skyline College and the Women's Bureau's Wi$eUp Financial Education Program